WILLY ARTS

Born in Holland, Arts grew up with a family in horses and learned all the aspects of animals at home. After graduating high school he went to a Dutch Equestrian School (Deurne) and learned management to breeding and riding. During this time Willy became very involved in preparing Stallions for the stallion approvals.

In 1984 Arts made the transition to California and began working with the DeGroot family, riding Wanroij and Volckmar who were the Flagship stallions at DG Bar. While preparing several stallions in the United States for approval, Willy has also been successful in competing at the FEI Level, as well as qualifying horses for the FEI Young Horse Championships and the World Championships for Young Dressage in Verden Germany. Willy has also been very involved with many aspects of the sport, such as Junior and Young Rider programs, FEI Young Horse programs and USDF Breed shows. Willy is a Board member for the KWPN NA.
